EXHIBITION SECTIONS OF INTEREST

«I visit the exhibition several times. The impressions were great, everything is organized at the highest level this year. There are many interesting stands, and I really liked it. We are interested in feed production equipment, and we have already found a lot of interesting things. There are negotiations going on at this stage, we want to conclude partnership deals.»

Maintaining the company's image

«We have been participating in the AgroWorld Qazaqstan exhibition for quite a long time. This year everything is going very well, we had many interesting meetings with new and existing clients. We were satisfied! We are currently in the process of negotiating several contracts. The qualitative composition of visitors is also pleasing, our stand is visited exclusively by professional audience with real projects under their belt. I think that next year we will definitely take part too».
