The company

By the Water Shellfish and Captain Cookes Seafoods are suppliers of premium live and frozen lobster from the cold waters of the Atlantic.

About

Our commitment to quality, industry know-how, and state-of-the-art processing facilities allow us to provide various grades of live lobster year-round at exceptional quality. We pack and ship live lobster from our main facility in Borden, PE, Canada, and have sister companies in the region securing consistent and ongoing supply. Frozen product is produced at Captain Cookes Seafood, also located in Borden, PE.

We currently supply customers from around the globe and can process orders of any size. Our relationships with transport companies allow us to fulfill orders on a timely basis with just-in-time delivery and can be tracked by our customers from shipment to delivery. In addition to our relationship with freight providers, By the Water Shellfish operates its own fleet of refrigerated trucks ensuring on-time delivery of our premium products.

Since the company was founded, we have successfully undergone several expansions to meet our customers growing demand. Including the addition of Live Lobster holding and buying facility in Nova Scotia and Kittery, ME in the United States.
